Letter from Joseph Gideon Walcher to sons, John Lorenzo & Stephen Arnold Douglas "Doug" Walcher, dated 7 January 1877

Loury City, Mo: Jan the 7th of 1877

Well Boys John & Douglas, Again I will rite you as it has been som time since I rote to you & today it is so stormey that I was afraid I would get lost & perish in the snow storm --It is now 1 to 2 feet drifts in it. Is still snowing yet, commenced some time in the nite -- snows & blows so that I can't see to the stores, it has been very coald & snowing for 2 weeks& coald for 4 to 5 weeks & the worse the wether the more I have to doo-- have slept only 3 hoal nites in 2 weeks--Have had some very bad Women cases that I could not leave & for 10 days onley got home every 3 nites –Today had to neglect 2 cases of children in concequence of the storm. Have verry cloose and hard work to ceep wood, water & something to eat & ware, & get no money Have not cloos sufficient to wair in sutch wether (inserted expetially) for a publick man.

I was 3 days without corn for Jim & the piges & cow & horse have little corn & hay a bout enough for a week or 2 Got som meel for the cows yesterday. We are getting plenty of milk & butter & some to sell, my Hoges are doing fine. I bout 1 sow and 7 piges in the foul & let them out on the Slaughter Hue Branch with 2 gilts, the ould sow and the gilter will have piges in this month. I have Jim & 5 piges at hoam, 3 cows & 2 mails, then I will sell 2 the sow piges I will let out.

My land I will have to loose-- the Lyan plase is gone & the other my places unless I can get money verry soon -- there is no money heare-- Onlye a little a mong the aold man (or mass) Back Misowuians & never will bee unless we get the railroad, & my mind is not chaing (inserted ed) yet in regard to leaving heare. Just as soon as I can get maters so that I can, I in tend to come back to Ills (Illinois). I have several invitations to chaing locations, doant no but I will in the Spring.

What has became of Dr. Orsborn, Have you no knowledge of a place wheir the Doctors or (are) not too thick. How many are their in Irving. How many at Morrisonville or the other station East. How many at Millersville or any other place or if Orsborn leaves their will bee a good place

I earn money enough heare but cant get it even by waiting on-- the people have nothing & never will have or they don't want anything Just one purpose so the law cant get hoald of them then 1 half of them wont pay Doctor bills, not withstanding all this I am in couraged sometimes to be satisfied for I am gaining in practis all the time a mong a bettor class of people.

I had 5 patients in Brownington amongst the other Doctors, 1 case they had gave up –I cured all of them. I have a call in Clinton to a case they cannot cure yet—once in a while I loose a patient of them that are concidard incurable, I earn $50 to 100 a month.

We are all well now except coalds, we have had sicknesss & trouble Since I last rote—Mother was sick 2 weeks & I lost 2 children in 2 days, Laura 1 day and the Baby the next, it was born a bout 9 in the morning and died at 3 the next morning & Laura was Maried the day before to George Hilligas, they are at His fathers yet.

Douglas, I want you to be a good boy and kind to every body (inserted above the line—keep out of bad company & rude boys tricks, doo or say nothing that I would not doo), go to church Sabath & day School, Study your lessons well that I may make a Lutherine Minister out of you for if I could live to see & no that I had 1 son a Worthy Lutherin minister it would give me more Pleasure& Satisfaction than if I had a Waranty Deed for the Hoal State of Ills, & then I could dye satisfied. I traded Jim off. Take good care of all the stock and doo what John tells you, for I raised John & I donant think he will for get & tell you anything rong. Rit soon & often whether I rit or not I will rite every time when I can tell me all what & how youre maters stand in the World & how all of you are getting a long religiously.

Your affectionate Father J G Walcher

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.
  Click here for a list of counties and date spans included in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index.

Audrey I. McAfee
60 English Village Park
Nixa, MO 65714

Dear Audrey,

Today was a great day! It is wonderful hearing from you. I am sorry you are not doing well and hoping today is a better day for you.

What a wonderful life you and George must have had --to have been married 45 years! I know you miss him.

I am so hoping that you might know of some of the McAfee family who are still living, perhaps a niece or nephew of George's brothers or sister, Lillian. I know that Daniel, and Harold are deceased, but do not know about Charles and Lillian.

I am assuming from your letter that you and George did not have children. But if I am wrong, I am hoping you will share your children's information with me.

I am writing a book on the Walcher family and would like to include the McAfee information. I know George's grandmother was Lucy Maude Walcher who was married to Adelphos McAfee and that Raleigh (George's father) was their only child.

I know I am asking a lot of questions, but you are the only person I have been able to contact about this family, so am hoping you will share information with me or send me on to another living relative in this McAfee family. This family is important to me. And I want you to know the information you have given me is very precious to me.

If instead of having you write me, I will be happy to call and visit with you by phone, if you are able, just send me your phone number and a time of the day I might call you.

I am very much look forward to hearing from you again.

Gratefully,

Tips on Using the Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county where the parents resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index is an on-going project and does not currently include death records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.

In the summer of 1998, I was given a" little red book" (aprox. 3 1/2" x2" x1/4" thick) of events about my grandma Cora Gertrude and her siblings lives. The book was given to me by Margaret Jane (McNeill) Fortier," Auntie M." (my mothers sister). It had been sent to grandma Cora by Ella Walcher per Graces request, probably around the 1920s, and then given to Margaret aprox 1945 after the 2nd world war was over. This book was originally given to Eva Grace by her father Calvin Day . The 3rd page of the diary says this: "Pa give his daughter Gracie Winters this book in Jan. 20th, 1888. 14 lines in one page." The book was given to her 11 months before Calvin died.. At the beginning of the book Grace seemed to be practicing her arithmatic and penmanship. She wrote that Coffee cost $1.00 then. On page 4, Grace writes: "January 15th, 1890 I stamped one pair of pillow schasms for Lucy Walcher. One pair for Belle Bartow pillow schasms (unknown word) for Ella Walcher." I'm assuming this was a kind of stenciling she was doing (maybe for embroidery). Grace seemed to treasure the gift of the book from her father as she began to write of important events and dates to remember after his death December 14, 1888 and then the death of her mother only 3 years later, September 9, 1891 . Orphaned at the young age of 14 and the oldest of her siblings, Grace begins to keep records for herself and those to come. (and maybe to help to keep her own sanity).
Graces 1st entry of dates began on page 9 which reads as follows: Aunt Mary Reynolds died (fathers sister, aunt in Ohio) September 7, 1891.
Grandpa Waenbaugh died the 20th of Nov. 1891 (no relation)
Grandma Waenbaugh died Sept. 9, 1890 (no relation) Roy McClairn died on 18th Nov. 1891 (no relation) On page 10, Gracie writes of my grandmother as follows: " July- Gertie Winters, daughter of Mrs & Mr C. D. Winters, was born in Ill. Christian Co. in the year 1887, July 4th. She went to Mr C Techies to make her home. She was 3 yr. old when her father died, 5 when her mother died. Adopted to Mr. C Tickieas." On Page 11 was written, "The M.E. Methodist Church was dedicated in Oklahoma Nov. 6, 1891 Built by Chas. (sp.?) Unpleby." On Page 12, Grace then writes of her mother: "April- Was born in Ill. , Clara E. Winters was born in April 14, ? 1874. She lived to be 37 years of age, she was a member of the Methodist church. She leaves 5 children to mourn her loss & 3 sisters and 2 brothers."

On page 15, Grace writes: "March- Laura Winters sister of Grace, Wilson, Gertie, and Mary was born Ill. Christian Co. Born 1883 June 10. She was only 5 years old when her father died & 8 years old when her mother died. Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. D. Winters, went to Mr. Barbytis to make her home. She was adoped." On page 16, Grace copied the words that were printed at top of the page "Blackmer & Post Manufacturers of Double Strength Culvert Pipe with Improved Sockets". (interesting that she would copy this .. maybe her father had been employed there ?) Page 18, " June- Wilson Winters was born in Ill. Christian Co., son of C. D. Winters, he was born May 23, 1880, he was 8 yrs old when his father died. He went to make his home with Iva Nfostello (sp?) Rosamond Christain Co. English people. He will deeply mourn for his lost parents. Page 19, "July- Calvin Day Winters was born in Ohio ,July 6 1853 and died December 14, 1888. He was united in marriage with Miss Clara E. Walcher in the year 1874 Feb. 14, He lived to be 36 yrs. old. He left a wife & 5 children to mourn his loss. Page 21, August- Grace writes" Grace Eva Winters was up at Pike School & the neighborhood August 14, 1890." (Could have been a last visit so as not to forget the happier times before she and her siblings were separated and sent to different homes.) Page 22, June- Grace writes of herself "Gracie Winters was born June 13, 1877, daughter of Mr & Mrs Calvin Day Winters. She was 11 yrs. old when her father died & 14 when her mother died. She then went to live with Mr. John A. Walcher. Oklahoma & Terry a half sister of Mrs Clara E. Winters." Page 23, September- Gracie writes of the days surrounding her mothers death (probably an illness such as flu)" Sept.1st Ma & children went home. Sept. 2nd Mrs McAfee was at our house. Sept. 6 Mrs McAfee was at our house. Sept. 7 Doctor was at our house. Sept. 8, I washed clothes. Sept. 9, poor mamma died. Sept. 10 All the children was at Aunt Maggies. Sept. 11 we buried mamma. Sept.

In the summer of 1996, I was given a "little red book" (approx. 3 1/2" x2" x1/4" index) of events about my grandma Cora Centrude and her siblings lives. This book was given to me by Margaret Jane (Maxwell) Fowler, Aunt to "I" (my mothers sister). It had been sent to grandma Cora by Ella Watcher per Grace request probably around the 1920s, and then given to Margaret approx 1943 after the 2nd world war was over. This book was originally given to Eva Grace by her father Calvin Day. The 3rd page of the diary says this: "Pa give his daughter Grace Winters this book in Jan. 20th, 1889. 14 lines in one page." The book was given to her 11 months before Calvin died. At the beginning of the book Grace seemed to be practicing her penmanship and penmanship. She wrote that Carlos was 51 (!) then. On page 4, Grace writes: "January 15th, 1890 I started one pair of pillow schams for Lucy Watcher. One pair for Nella Harvey pillow schams (unknown word) for Ella Watcher." I'm assuming this was a kind of shmoking she was doing (maybe for embroidery). Grace seemed to treasure the gift of the book from her father as she began to write of important events and dates to remember after his death December 14, 1889 and then the death of her mother only 3 years later, September 9, 1891. Orphaned at the young age of 14 and the oldest of her siblings, Grace begins to keep records for herself and those to come. (and maybe to help to keep her own sanity).

Adopted in Ill. C. Indiana." On Page 11 was written, "The M.E. Methodist Church was dedicated in Oklahoma Nov. 6, 1891 built by Class (sic.?) Wheatley." On Page 12, Grace then writes of her mother: "Mary - Was born in Ill. Clay. S. Winters was born in April 14, 1879. She lived to be 37 years of age, she was a member of the Methodist church. On page 15, Grace writes: "March - Laura Winters sister of Cecia, Willard, Ruthe, and Mary was born in Ill. Christian Co. Born 1883 June 16. She was only 5 years old when her father died & 9 years old when her mother died. Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. O. Winters, went to Ill. Bentley to make her home. She was adopted." On page 16, Grace copied the words that were that were printed at the top of the page "Accounter & Book Manufacturers of Double Strength Cutwell Pipe with Improved Sockets". (Interesting that she wrote copy this, maybe her father had been employed there?) Page 20: " June - Winters was born in Ill. Christian Co., son of C. O. Winters, he was born May 25, 1880. She then went to live with Mr. Jonn A. Watcher, Cecilia & Tommy and later at live Clara E. Winters." Page 23, September - Grace writes of the days surrounding her mother's death (probably an illness such as flu) Sept. 1st Mo & children went home, Sept. 2nd Sep. Mother was at our house. Sept. 6 Mrs McNeal was at our house, Sept. 7 Doctor was at our house, Sept. 8, I washed clothes. Sept. 9 poor mamma died. Sept. 10 All the children was at Aunt Mamie. Sept. 11 we buried mamma. Sept.

11 Uncle John was at Aunt Mags house. Wilson & I went home with him. Sept. 13, I was at Uncle Johns house. Sept. 14, at Uncle Johns house, Sept. 15, went up to Aunt Magg's house stayed at Aunt Mags house a week then Mary & I went to McAfees & I stayed a week & a half. On Page 25 Grace writes: October- Oct. 15 started for Oklahoma, got there 16th of Oct. Oct. 10 went to Pana and had our pictures taken. Little Mary was sick at McAfees. Ma's sale (prob. her posessions) was the 22nd of Oct. Uncle John got the safe, big red table cloth, & glass picture. Page 26 reads: Uncle Lige's (or Tige's) moved in our house (could have ment her Mas house when she says "our"). Uncle John got his arm hurt the 6 of Oct. 1891. There is preaching this afternoon at the school house.(Oklahoma) The new church was built at Ohlman August & Sept. was dedicated in Oct. 1891. Page 27 November- " Wrote to Aunt Edith the 16 of November, Oct(25)(26)(27)(28)(29)" Note: These dates seem to indicate to me how long the time must have seemed being away from home and relatives because she then writes,"Uncle Ike & George was here. I got a letter from Uncle John & Luay Nov. 12, 1891. Sale was Oct. 22.
On the back of page 27, I believe Grace wrote poss. of her grandparents: "Mrs. G. A. Walcher was born in Ill. 1821, April 6. She was united in marriage with Giddeon Walcher. She was a Methodist member of the Methodist church. She left 6 children to mourn her loss. Mr. Giddeon A. Walcher was born in North Carolina 1837, he died at the age of 57 yrs. old. He was a Methodist Preacher & a doctor." Page 28, A special event at home Grace writes: December- "Dec. 5th, 1890 there was a grand exhibition at the Ohlman school house." Page 29, Grace writes of little Mary: "Mary Day Winters, was born at Millersville May 3, on Decoration day. Ill.Christian Co., born May 3, 1889. She's a daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. D. Winters. She was 2 yrs. old when her father died at Ohlman. She went to live with Mr. McAfees, Auda McAfee. A good family adopted her to them. Uncle John gardean & administrator. The last few pages of the "Red Book" Grace Keeps sporadic notes of importance: " Uncle Douglas & Aunt Myrtie & my self went to Lair's". (prob. Laura) Sept. 13, 1894. "Lauria came to see me Oct. 14, 1892. January- " Jan. 15 & 16th had a sore throat 1890." "In holidays 1889 went to Pike, four miles north of Rosemond." " Jan. 12 had a sore tongue." June 9th Wedensday gave three music lessons at Mrs Covington's (Here Grace lists the students names, but hard to detect, ..poss.. Moline, Emma, Edna, Beth, Sadie). (On page 31 Grace writes a list of her students again with last names..) Pearl Kurt, Leota Kurt, Sadie Keitholt, Moline Covington, Emma Fager, Edrea Fager, Edna Fayes, Bertha Lahr.) On the back of page 31 there is more about Wilson. (This handwriting looks more like my grandma Cora Gertrudes to me. poss. writing in it after receiving the red book from Grace.) The page reads: Wilson D. Winters was born May 23, 1880. Died January 31st 1903 at Persimmion (sp.) Oklahoma. At the end of the book Gracie writes some sweet poems; (1) "Roses are red, violets are blue, sugar is sweet, & so are you." (2)" May your friends be added, Enimies be subtracted, Joys multiplied is the wish of your friend, Graicie Winters" The last note: " 39 leaves in this book." Recorded by Joy Butler Jan. 15, 2000 (Gracie Winters Grandniece, present possesor of Gracies "Little Red Book" of family)

Page 27 November- " Wrote to Aunt Edith the 16 of November, Oct.(25)(26)(27)(28)(29)" Note: These dates seem to indicate to me how long the time must have seemed going away from home and relatives because she then writes,"Uncle Ike & George was here. I got a letter from Uncle John & Lucy Nov. 12, 1891. Saw was Oct. 22

On the back of page 27, I believe Grace wrote boys, or her grandparents: "Mrs. C. A. Walder was born in 1821, April 6. She was united in marriage with Gideon Walder. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church. She left a children to mourn her loss. Mr. Gideon A. Walder was born in North Carolina 1837, he died at the age of 57 yrs. old. She was 2 yrs. old when her father died at Chilleen. She went to live with Mr. McKelvey, Aunt McKelvey. A blind family accepted her to mourn uncle John gardeen & accountrator. The last few pages of the "Red book" Grace keeps scrapbook notes of importance: " Uncle Gideon & Aunt Mattie & my self went to Lake." (prob. Lamy) April 12, 1894. "Vanna came to see me Oct. 14, 1892. Died January 21st 1903 at Pocumcuson (sp.) Oklahoma. At the end of the book Grace writes some sweet poems; (1) "Roses are red, violets are blue, sugar is sweet, & so are you." Good morning Barb

I'm sending you some more info, not to pressure you into "getting it on", but I just want you to have it for whenever you might be able to use it.

I forgot to mention Joseph Gideons daughter Laura Lucrecia. Will sent more about her later.

Right now while it is fresh in my mind I'm going to tell you a little more about Clerissa Evelyn. As you know Clerissa was married to a man named Winters and they had several children. One of these Children was a girl named Gertrude. At some point in time Gertrude married a nam named MacNeill (not sure about spelling) and they had a son named Raymond. Raymond married a girl named Rotha and they had 2 children, Donald and Shiela. Gertrude died, I think< in the late 40's but I do remember her a little. They lived at 4866 Knox Court in Denver. I don't know when they migratedd to Denver, but anyway, they came to our house numerous times for Sunday dinner when we lived east of Boulder. Raymond and Dad always pitched horseshoes, and seemed to enjoy each other. Raymond was a slender built man and I remember he always had a mustache. He also loved to play the piano, even though he had no training, he played well by ear. His favorite song to play was "Paper Doll", and one time in the early 60's I had a tape recorder, and I went to see him. I taped him playing the piano, and somewhere in my stuff, I still have that tape, although I'm sure the tape has deteriorated to the point where you can't hear it. I will try and find it one of these days and check it out. One more thing about Clarissa They were extremely poor. The kids were in rags and often times they didn't have enough to eat. I remember this because I asked why no one helped them and was told that in those days no one was able to help. That bothered me and still does.

I'll write more soon. Love Wendell

Good Morning Barb

I really appreciate our writing each other. I know you are really busy, so I wont bog you down with a bunch more stuff right now. Just one thing though. What I have been sending you (except kids stuff) has been from memory, so last night I got out the files and started looking in them. I ran across a note that says Laura Winters father drowned (maybe suicide). Then Gertrude Winters was raised by Ed Lehman's parents after Clarissa died.

Don't work too hard. Love Wendell

What I have been sending you (except kids stuff) has been from memory, so last night I got out the files and started looking in them. I can access a note that says Laura Wildens father drowned (maybe suicide). Then Gertrude Wildens was raised by Ed Lemmon's parents after Clarissa died.

Dear John,

I have called your home several times hoping to be able to visit with you about our Walcher Family History. I am sorry I have missed you.

I know your mother, Kathryn Alice Andews Kelsey is a daughter of Samuel W. Andews and Viola Maude Bost and her mother, Viola was the daughter of Margaret C. Walcher and Daniel Elijah Bost.

Margaret Catherine was the daughter of Joseph Gideon Walcher who migrated with his father, John Michael Walcher from North Carolina to Montgomery County, Illinois around 1840.

I am now in the midst of researching family information, working toward the goal of writing a book about the John Michael Walcher family. My plan is to only have copies available to those who have contributed to the information. It will not be on the Internet.

I do not know if your mother is living, if so I would love to correspond with her. If not, I am hoping that you might put me in contact with a member of your family or your mother's family who is also interested in our genealogy.

I look forward to hearing from you and am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Most sincerely,

Do you have anymore detail on Miriam Joyce and Charles W. Cullison than you have on the Ancestry database? Would like to have a living contact for this family. I am interested in Joyce's line and would like to be in contact to her daughter, Brooks. Would that be possible though you?

Sir:

I found on Dec. 15th 93. that you had filed on my claim. Dec 14th 93 I made the race Sept. 16th 93 in good faith and staked my claim for a home as I had a wife and 3 children and expected to go over at once to Enid and file but before I left my claim I got word that one of my children was dead died the day of the race. and I went home at once and inside of a week I lost another and there was sick. I have been living on my claim ever since Oct 25th 93 and have complied with every part of the Home stead law I was at Enid 6 times for the purpose of filing. I filed a contest Dec. 15th.

I write to you as I think it the proper way for a Gentleman to do by and also as I ~~the~~ sincerely think you must have been misseinformed as to my claim for I dont think any intelligent man would be so obtuse as to have filed on my claim had he known the facts in the case as I have stated them to you and I now ask you as a gentleman to relinquish so I can put my regular filing on.
Please let me hear from you soon

Owner of Pear Blossom Farms

By ANNA BEATY KERR
The Daily Sentinel

"Our farmer's market is a wonderful tapestry of Grand Junction," said Sara Alyn Oakley, artist in residence at The Art Center and art instructor at the market.

"The tastes and smells of fresh produce, home-baked breads and local wine, freely mixed with our homegrown art and music. If you want an impression of the real flavor of our community, Main Street is the place to be and Thursday nights are the time."

The 2004 Pepsi Farmer's Market Festival starts Thursday in downtown Grand Junction. The festival takes place every Thursday from 5 to 8:30 p.m. in the 300 to 600 blocks of Main Street. The market will close Sept. 30. This year's market festival is presented by Pepsi and the Downtown Partnership.

"There is really a festive spirit at the market created by the ambiance of downtown," said Diana Frankland, marketing director of the Downtown Partnership. "You can head to Main Street, buy some fresh produce, listen to great music, see beautiful artwork and smell fragrant flowers. Every sense of your body is addressed."

The Main Street market started seven years ago as an extension of the Teller Arms Shopping Center farmer's market by Pear Blossom Farms, the Mizushima family farm and Z's Orchard. The three farms were already selling their goods at Teller Arms when they decided to open another market.

"We needed to increase sales and the most logical solution was to expand," said Wendell Walcher, owner of Pear Blossom Farms. "We needed a place that was visible and had a lot of (pedestrian) traffic."

The three farms still sell produce at Teller Arms every Wednesday and Saturday.

The original downtown market started in between Second and Third streets. When Hawthorne Suites was built, it moved to Second Street and Colorado Avenue. Then the Two Rivers Convention Center parking lot was built and it had to move again. It finally found a home free from the threat of new construction in between Third and Fourth streets on Main.

The market now takes up four blocks and includes much more than produce. It now boasts of a variety of activities, including live music, arts and crafts booths, an art school and food vendors.

Because of these new additions, the market changed its name to Farmer's Market Festival last year to incorporate all of its components. This year it is adding even more activities and blocking off more streets to create a weekly hot spot downtown.

"People are overwhelmed when they come down here," Frankland said. "Maybe it's because they remember the old farmer's market. But there's so much more to it now."

The farmer's market does still offer its original product, fresh produce from local farmers.

"We have the best tomatoes and peaches in the world," Walcher said. "You couldn't ask for fresher produce than what's at the market."

Walcher, 69, has been farming on and off since he was a teenager. He has been working 7 acres on East Orchard Mesa for the last 14 years. Most of his crops are peaches, but he also raises pears, apples, plums, apricots, table grapes, raspberries and more.

From these or other local crops, Pear Blossom Farms makes pear and apple butter, fruit syrups, pickles, caramels, canned tomatoes, peppers and much more.

You only can get Pear Blossom goods at the farmer's markets and other local fruit stands, Sundrop Grocery Natural Food Market and Culinary Corner. All of its products are guaranteed fresh and gourmet quality, Walcher said.

MARKET: Kid Zone new this year with activities for children

"We will never use culls, overripes or non-ripes," he said. (A cull is a bad piece of fruit pulled from the harvest line.)

Walcher's first fruit display at the Main Street market will offer fresh cherries and many of his processed goods. More of his fruit will become available as the season progresses, including ginger apples, one of his favorites.

"Once you try one, you'll want more," he said as he walked through his rows of orchards. "It's a sweet apple that grows to the size of a grapefruit. They won't be ready until August, though."

There are many crops that won't be ready for the first farmer's market this Thursday. The produce selection will rotate every week based on what is ready to harvest. This harvest rotation is what makes the market a success, especially when it comes to the valley's peaches, Walcher said.

"When they were ready at the same time, they weren't as valuable," he said. "We've evolved by planting at different times. It makes them more desirable and they last longer."

While there are no concrete predictions when it comes to farming, Walcher did offer a general harvest calendar for local crops.

"June is the cherry month, there'll probably some peas, beets and carrots," he said. "July is more tomatoes, peaches, plums, apricots and corn. August everything is on and melons. And in September pretty much everything is on until the first frost."

The changing variety of produce keeps market-goers guessing. It also keeps the produce as fresh as possible. It is a rare opportunity in today's retail market to be able to buy produce that has gone straight from the farm to the truck to your hand, all within one day.

"Sometimes we harvest the fruit that morning " Walcher said. "It's fresh, sweet and juicy, and you know that it hasn't been sitting on a truck for a week."

Knowing where food at the market comes from makes shoppers more confident in their purchases, Frankland said.

"There's something great about being meeting the grower," she said. "And you're supporting your local farmers. Seventy percent of the money you spend here stays in Grand Junction."

The farmers and clientele at the market have developed a rapport with one another. The regular shoppers are on a first-name basis with the farmers and come to expect a quality product.

"Certain farmers have developed quite a following," said Erin Vega, marketing assistant with the Downtown Partnership. "People are lined up waiting for a particular item."

People are also attracted to what has built up around the produce stands in the last two years.

"Our community has always been strong in agriculture; that's one of the appeals of the valley," Vega said. "But there are many other aspects as well. We felt that this festival is a nice blend of all of the community."

Activities and other features at the festival include art, music, entertainment, family fun and more.

So what's there to do besides buy good produce?

Thirty vendors and 11 farmers will participate in this year's market. A variety of entertainment is planned on every block.

"Sixth Street is really happening this year," Frankland said.

New this year is the Kid Zone, in the 600 block of Main Street. Heirlooms for Hospice is sponsoring the area, which will include several activities for kids.

Also in the 600 block will be a community drum circle starting after 5:30 p.m. The event is a BYOD (bring your own drum), and people of all ages and abilities are encouraged to participate.

"You can even bring a pan out there and bang on that if you want," Frankland said.

Toys For the Fun of It, at 519 Main St., will also sponsor children's entertainment in front of the store, featuring local clowns Rolo and Blossom and more.

Also new to this year's market will be wine-tasting booths by Grande River Vineyards and Confre Cellars. Wine will be sold by the bottle only, not by the glass.

"We're going to stay with local wineries," Frankland said. "We'll take as many as we can."

Another new activity for market attendees will be the garden demonstrations by Dennis Hill of Bookcliff Gardens and culinary demonstrations by local food guru Dixie Burmeister and Il Bistro chef Brunella Gualerzi.

The two women will alternate weeks and create concoctions from the featured crop at the market. You can also learn how to bake during seminars at Main Street Bagels Artisan Bakery/Cafe, at Sixth and Main streets.

Returning to this year's market are several artist demonstrations and classes in front of Original Accents, at 321 Main St. Oakley will be at every market instructing the Main Street Art School.

"Come sloppy and with a hat on," Oakley warned prospective students. "We paint right on Main, in the middle of all the music and people. It's a lot of fun."

Oakley will teach a pastel class for all ages. A charcoal drawing class for children will be taught by 14-year-old artist Taylor Hickman. The pastel class is $32, the charcoal is $14. To register, call Original Accents at 256-7870.

People who never knew that they had artistic tendencies found benefit in last year's art classes.

"I'm not an artist, but I am hooked on it," Vega said. "It's something you can do right there and then take home. It has really grown into something special."

Oakley designed the market festival's poster this year. The poster will also be printed on canvas shopping bags. Both will be available for purchase at the market.

"We'll have a new poster every year," Frankland said. "We hope that the market becomes so big that the posters will become collector's items, like Pike Street Market in Seattle."

Also returning this year will be pottery demonstrations and vendors, soap makers, cosmetic products and much more.

The live entertainment this year will increase as well. Music will be made on every block of Main Street from Third to Sixth streets and a performing area in front of Hart Music, 417 Main St.

Many downtown merchants will keep their doors open later during the market. This year most booths at the market will face the storefronts, not Main Street.

"It will make pedestrian traffic flow better," Frankland said. "People can go inside a store and shop, then go into the pub and get a drink, go get some produce, go dance, and then go outside. The farmer's market will still be going on."

Some of the larger produce stands won't be able to face the storefront because of space constraints.

"It's really an event for the community," Vega said.

"You can run into friends you haven't seen for a while. Or make new ones while you're there."

SUNDROP GROCERY NATURAL FOOD MARKET offers a wide variety of organically grown produce. The downtown grocer also purchases fresh crops from Pear Blossom Farms.

Answer to June 13 Cryptoquip:
IF A BOTANIST FEELS STRONGLY ABOUT SOME TREES, YOU MIGHT SAY HE HAS A POPLAR OPINION.

Dream vacation takes us to Indiana

It's time for our annual Dream Summer Vacation Guide, wherein we reveal our list of "special" travel destinations that you will not hear about from the other travel writers, because they have standards.

We begin with a word of caution: Because of international tension, the U.S. State Department, currently operating from a bunker far below Lincoln, Neb., is advising American travelers to "avoid trouble areas, including foreign countries, films with subtitles and the World Showcase pavilions at Epcot."

DAVE BARRY

So this year our Dream Vacation itinerary will be limited to domestic destinations that you can travel to by car, assuming that you rob banks along the way, because gasoline prices this summer are expected to reach $3 per gallon ($67.50 in California).

The U.S. Transportation Department is advising motorists to conserve fuel by "traveling mainly downhill."

But let's get to your Dream Vacation itinerary. You'll begin by driving to Indiana, a state located near Ohio or Wisconsin (ask at a gas station for specific directions). On the way, you can entertain the kids by pointing out the many fascinating attractions of the American Heartland. ("Look, kids! Another cow!")

Your destination in Indiana is the town of Alexandria. You probably recognize the name: This is the town that made international news 10 years ago when three workers pulled a hairball the size of a goat out of a sewer.

The hairball became an instant nationwide celebrity, kind of like "Joe Millionaire," only with more intellectual depth. The original hairball dissolved, but the people of Alexandria made a replica, which bears a striking resemblance to Donald Trump, and which has been prominently featured in the annual Christmas parade.

But you're not taking your family to Alexandria to see a decade-old replica hairball. That would be a waste of your precious Dream Vacation time. You're going to Alexandria to see the World's Largest Ball of Paint.

That's right: Alexandria is one of those rare places blessed with two major attractions, such as Paris, which has both the Eiffel Tower and the Colosseum; and Brentwood, Tenn., which has Dolly Parton.

Because it turns out Alexandria is the home of a painting contractor named Michael Carmichael who, since 1977, has been applying coats of paint – sometimes 10 coats a day – to a baseball. Why did he do this? For exactly the same reason that Michelangelo painted the Sistine Chapel: He had plenty of paint.

Over the years, the paint ball grew, until now it weighs more than 1,300 pounds, which makes you wonder what Michelangelo might have accomplished if only he had had a baseball. Back in March, Alexandria honored Carmichael's achievement by holding Ball of Paint Day, and the town is hoping the ball will attract tourists. So to beat the crowds, be sure to get there early and allow enough time for your family to truly experience the paint ball. Ten minutes is plenty. Your next stop, after passing additional Midwest attractions ("Look, kids! Another cow!") is Algona, Iowa, home of the World's Largest Cheeto That We Know Of.

This is a mutant, 2-inch Cheeto clump, also bearing a striking resemblance to Donald Trump, that was obtained via eBay by Iowa radio personality Bryce Wilson, who placed it on display in a bar. To be brutally frank, the Cheeto is not that visually impressive, so to save precious Dream Vacation time we recommend you just drive through Algona without physically stopping.

Now you want to aim your car toward the state of Washington. Your route will take you through the West, giving you a chance to point out its majestic natural wonders ("Look, kids! More dirt!"). Your destination is the town of Soap Lake, Wash., home of the World's Largest Lava Lamp project. We are not making this up. Some Soap Lake promoters plan to build a 60-foot-high working lava lamp, for reasons that remain unclear to us no matter how many times we read the official Web site, www.GiantLavaLamp.com. At the present time, the Giant Lava Lamp does not, if you want to get highly technical, exist. But there's an impressive artist's rendering of it on the Web site. You can print this out and display it when you get to Soap Lake. "Look, kids!" you can say. "Some day this will ... Kids? Kids?"

Ha ha! Turns out your kids escaped the car at a gas stop back in South Dakota and hitchhiked home. They're probably laughing at you right now. The little rascals! We'll see how hard they laugh when they find out you spent their college money on gas.

About Greg E. Walcher

Greg Walcher brings to the practice a lifetime of experience, institutional knowledge, contacts and advocacy on natural resources and environmental policy and issues. He specializes in issues related to energy, water, endangered species and wildlife, forest management, public lands and private property rights.

Walcher served as Executive Director of the Colorado Department of Natural Resources, a department of 2500 employees, 8 divisions, 14 boards and commissions, and a $180 million budget. Its jurisdiction includes wildlife, parks, water, forestry, public lands, oil and gas, minerals and geology. His national colleagues elected him president of the national organization of natural resources/environment cabinet secretaries, and he has been a national leader in conservation policy debates.

Leveraging a decade of Capitol Hill experience as an aide to U.S. Sen. Bill Armstrong, Walcher spent 10 years as President and CEO of CLUB 20, a non-partisan, non-profit association of cities, counties, businesses, and individuals serving the interests of Western Colorado. The group's budget and membership tripled during Walcher's tenure through activism on important issues facing the region: water, forest health, tourism, transportation, telecommunications and public lands. He also served on the national policy committee for the American Society of Association Executives.

Natural resource issues are personal to Walcher. He and his wife Diana own Walcher Orchards, a Colorado operation including a peach orchard, direct marketing and fresh fruit shipping business with customers in over 40 states. The operation has been featured in Gourmet magazine as a cutting-edge example of niche marketing in high altitude fruit production and sales.

BULLET CAUSED FATAL BLAST
A bullet which possibly ricocheted was blamed for setting off more than 60 sticks of dynamite that killed Roy Schultz of Franktown. Douglas County Sheriff Royal McKinster said investigator Jim Jordan revealed Schultz had a .22-caliber revolver in his hand at the time of the blast.
Schultz, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultz, apparently was shooting Monday at a target or small animal, McKinster said, and a bullet went astray or richocheted and hit the box of dynamite which exploded. The dynamite was used by the boys father, an employ of the State Game, Fish and Parks Division, to blow up beaver ponds in the county. It was stored in a metal shed about 15 feet from where the youth was standing. Jordans's report stated that because of the cold weather, the dynamite was unstable and it wouldn't require a detonation device to cause it to explode.

Notes for ROY HOMER SCHULTZ:
BULLET CAUSED FATAL BLAST
A bullet which possibly ricocheted was blamed for setting off more than 60 sticks of dynamite that killed Roy Schultz of Franktown. Douglas County Sheriff Royal McKinster said investigator Jim Jordan revealed Schultz had a .22-caliber revolver in his hand at the time of the blast. Schultz, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schultz, apparently was shooting Monday at a target or small animal, McKinster said, and a bullet went astray or richocheted and hit the box of dynamite which exploded. The dynamite was used by the boys father, an employ of the State Game, Fish and Parks Division, to blow up beaver ponds in the county. It was stored in a metal shed about 15 feet from where the youth was standing. Jordans's report stated that because of the cold weather, the dynamite was unstable and it wouldn't require a detonation device to cause it to explode.

I have put together some information and some of the questions I have for you and some family group sheets to complete if you wish. Have them in the envelope and ready to mail tomorrow, Saturday, will probably put on the mailbox for the mailman. Today it was 17 when I reached the computer about 6 a.m. and is now 28 degrees for the high of the day. Burrrr! Will cook tonight and stay in!!! Maybe we can find a movie on HBO!
Would you check with Karen and ask her if she would correspond with me about her family branch? If so, let me know.
When you get my envelope, let me know. I want you to know what I am asking for. Then I will call Sue in Edmond. I am so excited that we have made contact again, and appreciate your help with the information.

Howdy Barbara,

I just thought I would check to see if you received my message and to my delight you did. Wow! That was fast.

Just for starters...My great grandfather was Stephen Arnold Douglas Walcher. My father and his younger brother were named after him. My father is Arnold Douglas Schnaithman. His mother is Lois Mabel Walcher-Schnaithman. Aunt Sue still lives in Edmond. Her phone number is 405-348-6633. They still live in the same place as they did in 2000.

Karen, Stanley Friends daughter, and I still correspond. She has two brothers Derek & Butch Friend. Karen's last name now is Parker. She married Ira Parker and they live in Bowie, Maryland. She just sent me a collage of pictures of her/our relatives.

Have to go for now. I will write more later.

Love,
Carol

Howdy Barbara,

I am truly sorry I missed your call. I think about you when I remember, or even visit relatives in Oklahoma. I was probably at work. I work 3p.m. to 11p.m. Monday through Friday.

My new email address is carolschnaithman@yahoo.com. No underline or bold. Just lower case.

Congratulations on your research & if I understood correctly a book on the John Walcher Family? My Grandmother, Lois Mable Walcher-Schnaithman & Great Aunt Ota became my step grandmother after Grandma died. We called her Grandmother Ota. Grandma's sister which is also another Walcher. Now, I could probably go on about this for the rest of the year, but I have to go to the bank, get ready for work, etc. dull stuff.

Anyway, I can't wait to hear from you. Thank you for calling. I am so sorry I missed it, but hopefully it this will save you a long distance call.

Love,
Carol Schnaithman-Parnian

Grandma Coulter was found on the floor in the morning of May 20, 1994 by her husband, Albert. She did not suffer and we were all thankfull that she went in peace to heaven. Although her death was a surprise to most everyone. I, Glenn Garber, felt that her health was worse than anyone would mention. I had spoken to her only a week earlier on the telephone and I felt that she was quite weak. She, Mary, had suffered from asima and alergies for many year and lately she had suffered from attacts (breathing) causing several scares in the last year, 1994.

I receive a letter from her providing me with her correct address (I recently mailed her a late mother's day card with the wrong address) She lived on 2534 Hill Avenue #16
Grand Junction, CO 81501

She was a great, loving women. I will miss her dearly.

Carol, thanks for taking the time to check and read and reply before you went to work! I have put together some information and some of the questions I have for you and some family group sheets to complete if you wish. Have them in the envelope and ready to mail tomorrow, Saturday, will probably put on the mailbox for the mailman. Today it was 17 when I reached the computer about 6 a.m. and is now 28 degrees for the high of the day. Burrrr! Will cook tonight and stay in!!! Maybe we can find a movie on HBO!
Would you check with Karen and ask her if she would correspond with me about her family branch? If so, let me know.
When you get my envelope, let me know. I want you to know what I am asking for. Then I will call Sue in Edmond. I am so excited that we have made contact again, and appreciate your help with the information.

Larry, I am beginning to update my information with some of yours. I am seeing that the obituaries are the items needed. Would it be possible for you to go to Springfield library, find the obituary (would probably be on microfilm), print it off and mail to me?
If this would be possible, I will make a list with the death dates. It won't be a one time thing, it will take a few trips, less if you have someone to help with it.
I have had a researcher do this, but it is taking a bit of $ to do it. Some libraries have the actual newspapers and allow a person to photograph the obituary, then it can be sent by email. Let me know if this would be possible, if not I understand.
Before too long, I am going to send you a file of my research as soon as I have it updated.

Larry, thank you for you quick reply. I am so glad to know you live in the Illinois area. A couple of years ago we visited some of our Walcher cousins in Litchfield and Hillsboro/Witt area and did some research at the library while there. I know there are some obituaries I need and hope you can help with them. And am looking for a couple of ancestors who seemed to drop out of sight--think they are probably buried in the area. Let me get through these holidays and can get back into the Joseph Gideon book to see definitely what I need to complete the family.
I know we have a picture of Joseph Gideon from one of the Colorado cousins. Several of his children came to the KS and OK. The cousin who gave me the picture of Joseph Gideon is related through the Stephen Arnold Douglas Walcher branch.
I look forward to working with you and sharing more information after the holidays.

Larry, thank you for your quick reply. I am so glad to know you live in the Atlanta area. A couple of years ago we visited some of our kin in Lithonia and Stonecrest area and did some research at the library while there. I know there are many genealogy books and boxes you can help with there. And an looking for a couple of my great uncles who moved to Georgia out of Alabama. Unfortunately we probably don't have much in common in terms of dates and generations. Certainly most I need to complete the family.

I know we have a relative of Joseph Gibson from out of Ashe County, several of his relatives came to the area as well. The Gibsons who were the ancestors of Jessie Hudson is related through the Stephen Arnold family, Arnold Hudson.

I look forward to working with you and sharing more information about the Hulton-Gibson families.

Thanks for your response. I grew up in Penn. Yes, and my kin in Farmersville. However, Ashe County is nearby.The family side of the family was from St Clair County which is little further south.

Will send whatever you need, let me know.

Larry, thank you for the note. Yes, I have this family in my database. I am related to you . My great-great grandfather was John Henry Walcher. You have him listed as Rev. J.H. Walcher d. Oskaloosa, Jefferson County, KS, which is correct. My John Henry and your Joseph Gideon were brothers. I have several cousins who are of the Joseph Gideon line.
Several years ago, together with two of my cousins, we wrote a book on John Henry's descendants. Due to privacy reasons, it was distributed to only those who submitted information because it included families and children who were born almost to the minute the book was printed. As a result cousins wanted to know more about the earlier generation, John Michael Walcher and Leah Smith(Schmidt) Walcher.
I am however working on another book about the children of John Michael Walcher, father of Joseph Gideon. John Michael and Leah had 11 children, 9 lived to have families. The has been a work in progress for a couple of years. I have quite a bit of information on the Joseph Gideon line, but very little on the Florabelle "Belle" Walcher and Pat Bartow line. The information in your pdf file is wonderful. It helps to fill in that family branch and I hope you will help with more information, such as obituaries and burial locations.
As you know, Joseph Gideon had two wives, Jemima *Toberman *and Mary Ann Elizabeth Blackwelder. Mary Ann Elizabeth was also married to William or Willis Williams before 1847, they had one daughter, Cora Geneveria Williams, who married her first cousin, John Alexander Walcher, son of Edmond Aaron Walcher, who was the older brother to Joseph Gideon. Yes, does make for interesting families!
*Where do you live? * I will be happy to share information with you.
Looking forward to hearing from you.
Most sincerely,

Barbara,
Thanks for your response. I grew up in Paris, Ill. And now live in Fairmeadville, Pa. Fairmeadville is a small south of Scranton in in Montgomery County, about 27 miles from Paris, and about 40 miles from Pittsburgh where many of your ancestors are from. Montgomery County is adjacent to Montgomery County, the Easton site of the family are from St Clairs County which is a little further south.

I'll read whatever you send, let me know.

Larry, thank you for the note. Yes, I have this family in my database. I am related to you . My great-great grandfather was John Henry Walcher. You have the Father as Rev. William C. Walcher, Jr. Jefferson County, PA, which is correct. He took many of your Jackson ancestors brothers. I have several cousins who are of the Tyler Walcher line.
Several years ago, together with two of my friends, we wrote a book of John Henry's descendants. The is privately published, it was distributed to only those who submitted information because it included two illegitimate men who were born almost to the minute the mom was married. As a result, cousins wanted to know more about the early 20 generation, John Michael Walcher and Lech Antichrishtiv Walcher.
I am however working on another book about the children of John Michael Walcher, father of Joseph Walcher. John Michael and Lech Antichrishtiv lived to have families. We have been a work in progress for a couple of years. I have quite a bit of information on the Joseph Michael line, but very little on the Frederick "Willy" Walcher and for Barton line. The information in your pdf file is wonderful. It helps to fill in that family branch and I hope you will help with more information, such as activities and burial locations.
As you know, Joseph Michael had two wives, Louisa Schoenberg and Mary Ann Elizabeth Hochbalder. Mary Ann Elizabeth was also married to William or Willis Williams before 1867. They had one daughter, Cora Estavenia Williams, who married her first cousin, John Alexander Walcher, son of Samuel Aaron Walcher, who was the older brother to Joseph Michael. Yes, does make for interesting families!
Where do you live? I will be happy to share information with you. Looking forward to hearing from you.
Best wishes,

Larry, thank you for the note. Yes, I have this family in my database. I am related to you . My great-great grandfather was John Henry Walcher. You have him listed as Rev. J.H. Walcher d. Oskaloosa, Jefferson County, KS, which is correct. My John Henry and your Joseph Gideon were brothers. I have several cousins who are of the Joseph Gideon line.
Several years ago, together with two of my cousins, we wrote a book on John Henry's descendants. Due to privacy reasons, it was distributed to only those who submitted information because it included families and children who were born almost to the minute the book was printed. As a result cousins wanted to know more about the earlier generation, John Michael Walcher and Leah Smith(Schmidt) Walcher.
I am however working on another book about the children of John Michael Walcher, father of Joseph Gideon. John Michael and Leah had 11 children, 9 lived to have families. The has been a work in progress for a couple of years. I have quite a bit of information on the Joseph Gideon line, but very little on the Florabelle "Belle" Walcher and Pat Bartow line. The information in your pdf file is wonderful. It helps to fill in that family branch and I hope you will help with more information, such as obituaries and burial locations.
As you know, Joseph Gideon had two wives, Jemima *Toberman *and Mary Ann Elizabeth Blackwelder. Mary Ann Elizabeth was also married to William or Willis Williams before 1847, they had one daughter, Cora Geneveria Williams, who married her first cousin, John Alexander Walcher, son of Edmond Aaron Walcher, who was the older brother to Joseph Gideon. Yes, does make for interesting families!
*Where do you live? * I will be happy to share information with you.
Looking forward to hearing from you.

Larry, thank you for the note. Yes, I have this family in my database. I am related to you . My great-great grandfather was John Henry Walker. He was the third of Rev. J.W. Walker d. Oswatosa, Jefferson County, KS, which is north of Troy. My John Henry and your Joseph Gideon were brothers. I have several photos and art of the Joseph Gideon line.

Several years ago, together with one of my cousins, we wrote a book on John Henry's descendants. Due to privacy concerns, it was distributed to only those who contributed information because it includes families and children who were born almost to the venue the book was printed. As a result cousins weren't know about the earlier generation. John Wesley Walker and Sarah Smith Walker.

I am however working on another book about the children of John Wesley Walker, father of Joseph Gideon. John Michael and Joh Michael. I intend to have family. The has been a work in progress for a couple of years. I have quite a bit of information on the Joseph Gideon line, but very little on the Michael "Mike" Walker and Pat Barrow line. The information is more yet fun to write. It helps to fill in that family branch and I hope you will help with more information, such as obituaries and burial locations.

As you know, Joseph Gideon has own wives, Martha Thompson and Mary Ann Elizabeth Blackwelder. Mary Ann Elizabeth was also married to William or William Williams before 1847, they had one daughter, Cora Dosenrola Williams, who married her first cousin, John Manchester Walker, son of Andrew Walker, who was the older brother to Joseph Gideon. Dear Larry,

I decided to write you instead of sending info over the Internet. I wanted you to have a paper copy. After receiving your information, I can say we are 4th cousins.

I belong to the subscription website Ancestry.com and have gotten a lot of information from the census, WWI Draft Registrations and Social Security Index, plus other sources. Some of the obituaries I have paid a research to get for me, others have been found on the Internet.

You have a cousin Laverl Hilyard who is related through Ella Geneva Walcher (dau of Joseph G. & Jemima), she married Walter Pratt. Laverl has given me wonderful material on that branch of the family. She is 82 and her husband has Alzheimers, so we correspond mainly by email at laverthilyard@hotmail.com. I am sure she would love to correspond with you if you wish. You will notice her information is in the Descendants info.

Until you contacted me, Laverl was my only contact for the Joseph Gideon Jemima Toberman families. I am so happy you found me! I am collecting names of other contact names who have posted information on Ancestry.com and RootsWeb.com, but have not contacted them as yet, that info will come later. If you have cousin contacts, I hope you will share their information with me.

What I am hoping you can share with me are the obituaries, pictures and stories from your branch of the family, especially information of the Eliphaz and Flora Belle Bartow family. I suggest you first, ask some of the family if there are scrapbooks/albums of information, they will share with you.

I very much appreciate you volunteering to help with the obituaries in newspapers at the Springfield Library. I am not sure which library, but know your local librarian will be able to set you in the right direction. I do find the state newspapers usually only give limited information, it is the local newspaper that gives the most information.

So here are a few things to begin with:

It has been said that Jemima may have been married to a Brooks before she married Joseph Gideon, have not found any definite proof as yet.

Also have been searching for the information about Jemima and Francis "Frank" Clark. I have not found them in the 1900 census, so perhaps he died around that time. They married in 1882 and Jemima is living with Flora Belle in 1910. Do you have any information about Frank? Birth and death dates and where buried? I thought perhaps Jemima and Frank were buried together???

Dear Larry,

I decided to write you instead of sending info over the internet. I assumed you believe a paper copy. After receiving your information, I can say we are a "[illegible]" cousins.

I belong to the subscription website Ancestry.com and have posted a lot of information from the census, WWI Draft Registration, and Social Security Index, plus other sources. Some of the obituaries I have paid a research to pull the info. (this [illegible] to the Internet)

You have a cousin Laverl Tilly and who is related through Ella Geneva Walker (the [illegible] Joseph Q. Jennings), she married Walter Bean. Laverl has given me wonderful ancestral information from Joseph or the family. She is 82 and her husband has Alzheimer's, so she is struggling mainly by herself. [illegible] Laverl mentioned you. I am sure she would be [illegible] you if you want. You will notice her information is in the Descendants line.

Until you contacted me, Laverl was my only source for the Joseph Odell Jennings Descendants family. I am so happy you found me! I am collecting names of other cousins many who have posted information on ancestry.com and Rootsweb.com, but have not contacted them as yet, that info will come later. If you have cousins contact, I hope you will share their information with me.

When I am hoping you can share with me – the photos, pictures and stories from your branch of the family, especially information of the Tilly's and Dora Belle Barrow family. I suppose you first, ask some of the family. If there are some photos or stories or information, they will share with you.

I very much appreciate you volunteering to help with the obituaries in newspapers in the Springfield Library. I am not very [illegible] History, but know your local library is will be able to set you in the right direction. I do find the [illegible] newspapers usually only give limited information, it is the local newspaper that gives the most information.

So there are a few things to begin with.

It has been said that Jennings may have been married in a church before she married Joseph. Unless they eloped they should be proud as well.

Also there been something for the information about Jennings and Francis "Frank" Clark. I have not found them in the 1900 census, or perhaps he died among that time. They married in 1882 and Jennings is living with Dora Belle in 1910. Do you have any information about Frank? Both died death dates and Clark buried? I thought perhaps Jennings and Frank were buried together??

Where were Florabelle and Pat Bartow married? They are not listed online in the IL Archive marriage database, so was possibly in another state or missed in the database. Are they buried in the Millersville Cemetery? A picture of them and/or a picture of their gravestones and perhaps a wonderful story about them would add so much to our information. Obituaries for each might give details not known otherwise.

First child – Mable Bartow mar. ???? You have Bob Pinkston, but the ages of the children are too young to be theirs. Her death date indicates she died in Pana at age 18 years, so possibly in childbirth with only one living child, possibly who was named Robert after his father? Her obituary would tell us about her husband, etc. She was at home with the family in 1900 census, age 16. An obituary for her is what we are needing.

Second Child – Charles Louis Bartow m. Leona Grace Barding.
There is a contact person for this family on Ancestry (jreedy), have emailed and am awaiting an answer. I can hope we will be able to get the obituaries, pictures and stories from her/him. However, you may know this cousin?

That's it for now. Will get back with you later. Am having back problems and doctor appointments. I have picture of Joseph Gideon from Wendell and one of Jemima from Laverl. Will get copies made and send soon.

I know you are still working, I know when I was working I cound not do genealogy as much as I wanted to, now I am retired so life is a bit different. Please know whatever information you have will be of great value to me.

Looking forward to hearing from you as your time permits.

Your Oklahoma cousin,

Where were Forsabella and Pat Barrow married? They are not listed online in the IL Archives marriage database, so was possibly in another state or missed in the database. Are they buried in the Millersville Cemetery? A picture of them and/or a picture of their gravestones and perhaps a wonderful story about them would add so much to our information. Obituaries for each might give details not known otherwise.

First child – Mable Barrow nee, ????. You have Bob Pinkston, but the ages of the children are too young to be theirs. Her death date indicates she died in Paris at age 18 years, so possibly in childbirth with only one living child, possibly with was named Robert after his father? Her obituary would tell us about her husband, etc. She was at home with the family in 1900 census, age 16. An obituary for her is what we are needing.

Second Child – Charles Lewis Barrow m. Louisa Diane Harding.
There is a contact person for this family on Ancestry (needy), have emailed and am awaiting an answer. I can hope we will be able to get the obituaries, pictures and stories from her/him. However, you may know this source?

That's it for now. Will get back with you later. Am having book problems and doctor appointments. I have pictures of Joseph Clifton from Wardell and one of Jonnie from Lawyer. Will get copies made and send soon.

I know you are still working, I know when I was working I could not do genealogy as much as I wanted to, now I am retired so life is a bit different. Please know whatever information you have will be of great value to me.

Looking forward to hearing from you as your time permits.

Tips on Using the Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index

- To avoid text wrapping in multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of details from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county where the parents resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Pre-1916 Illinois Statewide Death Index is an on-going project and does not currently include death records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.

Macoupin Man, 48, Drowns In Pond

Believed To Have Fallen From Slippery Path.

Carlinville, April 23—The body of Frederick Earl Yard, 48, who had been missing since Friday, was found this morning in a pond on his farm in Bird township near here. A jury, called by Coroner John Ferketich, returned a verdict attributing death to accidental drowning.

Yard had left his house at 4 p. m. Friday to attend to some farm chores and did not return home last night. Claudd Porter, a farm helper, found his body at 6 a. m. today near the bank in the shallow water of the pond. It was believed he fell into the pool when his feet slipped on the nearby muddy path.

Mr. Yard was born March 7, 1901, a son of John C. and Bertha O. Parrott Yard. On July 24, 1927, he was married to Lucille Pratt at Palmyra.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, Earl Lynn; three daughters, Joyce, Janice and Mary Lou; one brother, Thomas W. Yard, of Hettick.

The body has been removed to Wiese funeral home. Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at Charity church. Rev. F. L. Crouch will officiate. Burial will be in Charity cemetery.

Hi Susan,

I am sure we are from the same family. Thanks for replying. Yes,I too would like to know more about the Toberman family.
Besure to keep in touch. We now live in East Alton,Ill. Since we retired. My husband was a farmer, we were married 50 yrs.last March 26, [1950].It doesn't seem possible, time really gets away from one.We have three dau's Two live here, and one lives across the river in St. Charles, Mo.We have eight grand-children, and six great grandchildren.

As for as I can go back on the Tobermans is Peter. At the cemetery where he is burried I found his name spelled Towerman. I wonder if this was a mistake or if they at one time spelled it that way.

This is some information I received from Mrs. Charles E. Vail Hillsboro,ILL.Back in 1981.
Henry Toberman B. 1757 Philadelphia. He is burried at Ft. Seibert. He served under Washington, had bayonet wounds,was captured at stony Point. his wife was Sarah Smith and she is burried at Ft. Sibert.

The subject of this sketch was reared to manhood in the usual manner of farmer lads, and remained at home until twenty-six years of age. For three years he followed the carpenter's trade, and then resumed the occupation to which he was reared. As a companion and helpmate on life's journey, he chose Miss Mary Price, their marriage being celebrated March 22, 1860. - Her father, Benjamin Price, was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, April 1, 1808, and was a son of Thomas and Sarah Price. On the 16th of January, 1830, he married Elizabeth Seran, who was born October 11, 1806. Together they traveled life's journey for fifty-four years, sharing with each other its joys and sorrows, its adversity and prosperity; but at length the hand of Death separated them, and the mother passed away in Leesville, Ohio, November 4, 1884. Mr. Price survived her a few years, dying in Leesville, April 12, 1888. They held membership with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and were people whose lives of uprightness won them the respect of all with whom they were brought in contact.

At the time of his marriage, Mr. Burchfield possessed no cash capital, and had only a small farming outfit, but he rented land, upon which he made his home until after his return from the army, when he bought a farm of forty acres. Feeling that his country needed his services, in the fall of 1864 he joined Company H, One Hundred and Seventy-eighth Ohio Infantry, which was attached to the Army of the Cumberland. They were, however, detailed to supply cattle for Sherman's army, and for that purpose were stationed at Tullahoma, Ga. The regiment afterward went to Raleigh and joined Sherman's army at Wheat-swamp Church, in North Carolina. Afterward the regiment was sent to Charlotte, N. C., as guards, and its members were discharged June 29, 1865, and mustered out at Columbus, Ohio. At one time, Mr. Burchfield was with a squad of twenty-five men, all of whom were captured except himself, but he stood his ground, and after the rebel guns were discharged, he and his comrades turned on their captors and escaped. He took part in about one hundred and fifty skirmishes while engaged in guarding railroads. When the war was over and the country no longer needed his services, Mr. Burchfield returned home and carried on farming in Ohio until 1867, when he left his native State for Illinois. Coming to Christian County, he located in Greenwood Township, where he purchased eighty acres of land, making that farm his home for eight years. In 1875, he rented one hundred and sixty acres of land in Johnson Township, and removed to that place for the educational facilities of that neighborhood were superior to those near his old home and he wished to afford his children good advantages. For eleven years he operated a rented farm, and then, in 1886, purchased a small tract of land in Johnson Township, to the cultivation and improvement of which he devoted his energies until the spring of 1891, when he came to Taylorville. He has now invested in city property, which yields to him a good income.

By the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Burchfield, five children were born, two sons and three daughters: James William, Elizabeth, M. Belle, Benjamin Price and Violet F. With the exception of the eldest child, all are still under the parental roof. The family have a pleasant home in Taylorville, and their hospitable doors are ever open for the reception of their many friends. In his farming operations, Mr. Burchfield was successful, and under his care and cultivation the soil was made to yield to him a ready return, so that he is now comfortably situated in life, having a competence that enables him to live retired.

HENRY CLAY BOHN is one of the honored veterans of the late war, having served nobly in the defense of the Stars and Stripes. He is now engaged in the clothing business in Morrisonville, and is one of the prominent business men of the place. His birth occurred in Franklin County, Pa., October 16, 1843, and his boyhood was spent in his native State until his thirteenth year, when he removed with

(2). rootsweb database (http://worldconnect.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?db=dolinfhughes)

After you link to this web page, enter a surname in the box near the middle of this page. Keep going to new screens until you narrow down your search to a particular person.

(3). my-ged.com/hughes4 database (http://www.my-ged.com/hughes4/)

After you click on the above link and arrive at this web site (www.my-ged.com), go to the bottom of the page. Here click on the "Surnames" link. This takes you to another screen where you can choose a particular surname. Click on a particular surname and keep going to new screens until you narrow your search down to a particular person. This service is provided by Dave Wilks. As far as databases explaining who is kin to whom, I recommend this site, because my information is not censored or edited here.

Dave Wilks also supplies my database to Gene Stark's GENDEX. I have no separate URL (address) for GENDEX.

(4). Ancestry.com database (http://awt.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?db=dolinfhughes)

My database was supplied to Ancestry.com by Rootsweb. They both "clean" my data of all names and notes of people born after 1930, unless I have indicated that the said person is deceased. Ancestry.com refers to my database as being part of their Ancestry World Tree Project.
